TEMPORARY STORAGE CONTAINER APPLICATION

FOR REMODEL/NEW CONSTRUCTION ONLY

All GLC approved projects and permits are subject to County approval. Temporary storage container permits for remodel/new construction will expire 6 months from the signed date of approval by the A & Z Committee.

G. Vehicle and Container Storage

1. No vehicle of any type, no construction equipment of any type, and no container of any type shall be stored on any undeveloped lot without prior written approval from the Architectural and Zoning Committee.
2. A vehicle shall mean any structure for transporting something, especially on wheels, such as boat trailers, travel trailers, camp trailers, trucks, pickups, vans, cars or any other similar structure.
3. A container shall mean any temporary, movable, portable structure designed to store, keep, hold, or protect tools, implements, parts, etc., during the construction of a residential building and must have a permit from the A & Z Committee which will only be issued after a house plan has been approved.
4. Containers shall not be allowed as permanent storage on developed property.
5. The container shall remain on the lot during construction only for the length of time designated on the permit.
6. Applications for a vehicle or container storage permit are available at the Glenhaven website or at the GLC Administration Office.
